

Open For Business

- 1 Born in a stable so long ago,
The beginning of the Christmas story we know,
Where the wise men and shepherds all travelled to see
God's beautiful gift of a baby.
- 2 So much is different between now and then,
The people and the places and the presents we send,
But in the message of the story the truth still remains,
God loves us and that's why He came.
- 3 So Christmas is open for business once more,
Time to go shopping for presents and toys.
Let's give thanks and remember that God sent His son,
To bring His salvation to everyone.
