

William Booth

This is William Booth and he was born in 1829 in Nottingham. When he was younger He left to help care for his family. He is significant because he found the Salvation army in 1865. The Salvation army is a charity that teaches people about god and cares for homeless people. He died in 1912 when he was 83 years old.

By Brody