

William Booth

This is William Booth and he was born in 1829 in Nottingham. When he was younger he left school to help his poor family. He is significant because he founded the Salvation Army in 1865. He helped the people and gave them some food and he may have then worn uniforms. He died in 1912 when he was 83 years old.

By Caleb