

Emeline Pankhurst

This is Emmeline Pankhurst and she was born in 1858 in Manchester.

When she was younger she saw that women couldn't vote and it made her feel frustrated.

Emmeline Pankhurst was significant because she helped to change the law so women can vote and she decided to tell everybody to let women vote but she died before the law changed so she never got to see the law change. Emmeline Pankhurst helped to change the law in 1928 and she thought about women's rights. Emmeline Pankhurst died in 1928 when she was 68 years old.

By Imogen