

William Booth

This is William Booth and he was born in Nottingham in 1829.

When he was younger he left school to help his poor family.

He is significant because he created The Salvation Army in 1865.

William Booth taught the people who he looked after his motto which was love God love others.

He wanted to help homeless people.

He died in 1912 when he was 83 years old.

By Lucas.