

Do you want to make a difference to young people at Robert Miles Infant
School?

Are you looking to develop your own professional skills?

By volunteering as a school governor...

...you can do both.

What we offer

Being a governor can be very rewarding. Whilst supporting and shaping our work and strategic direction, your actions make a difference to the life chances of our pupils and the working lives of our staff.

This is also a great opportunity for you to gain professional development in a potentially different and challenging context from your usual day-to-day role as you seek to develop your professional profile. You will be part of a team and will have the opportunity to apply and share your unique skills and experience whilst learning from others.

Ethos and values

Robert Miles Infant School, part of the Nova Education Trust, are in a privileged position to be involved right at the beginning of children's learning journey and we influence and shape their attitudes to learning from the very start.

We are passionate about promoting and instilling a curiosity and love for learning through an inspiring and challenging curriculum; preparing children to become lifelong learners with improved life choices.

We believe there is no ceiling to learning and through delivering an excellent curriculum, children achieve more than they thought possible.

Our motto of 'Work hard, be kind' is felt in everything we do.

Are you suitable?

You must be over 18 and you need to be able to abide by the seven principles of public life; selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty and leadership.

If you are willing to get involved with the school community and help make a difference to children's education and life chances, then you are more than suitable to fulfil the role of a school governor.

Whatever your experience, we would love to hear from you. We meet four times a year (employers release staff for civic duties). In between meetings, governors are required to make at least two visits to school. You will also receive VIP tickets to any school events.

This is also an opportunity for us to increase the diversity of our organisation, to better represent the community we serve. We are therefore particularly seeking applicants who can bring perspectives we are currently lacking – ethnicity, disability and LGBTI.
